- [i] all dough and other materials used in preparing the products of the bakery, and the products of the bakery, shall be kept in clean receptacles and be cleanly covered ;
- [j] the bakery shall be open at all reasonable hours to the inspection of any officer of the Committee appointed in this behalf ; and
- [k] no person suffering from any contagious or infectious disease or open sores shall be employed in the bakery.

5. The Municipal Committee may cancel or suspend a license on being satisfied as to the occurrence of a breach of any of the conditions of the license.

6. On receipt of an application for a license, the licensing officer appointed by the Committee may either issue the license, or he may refuse to grant it ; in the former case, the matter shall be laid before the Municipal Committee for formal sanction, but in the latter case, the licensing officer shall record his reason in writing.

7. The person to whom a license has been refused under the preceding rule may appeal to the Municipal Committee within 15 days from the date of such refusal.

8. Any person committing a breach of bye-law 2 above or of any of the conditions of the license shall be liable, on conviction by a Magistrate, to a fine which may extend to fifty rupees, or in the case of a continuing breach, with further fine which may extend to five rupees for every day after the first during which the breach continues.

No. 6582-Education.—The following bye-laws framed by the Municipal Committee of Delhi under the provisions of sections 188 (e) (i), of Act III of 1911 (Punjab Municipal Act), regarding Municipal Slaughter-Houses, within the Municipal limits of Delhi, are approved by the Hon'ble the Chief Commissioner of the Delhi Province, and are hereby published for general information.

The bye-laws will come into force six weeks after the date of publication of the notification.

BYE-LAWS.

1. These bye-laws apply only to the slaughter-houses owned and managed by the Municipal Committee.

2. Animals for slaughter shall be brought to the slaughter-houses between the hours of 3 and 11 A.M. or such hours as the Health Officer may from time to time direct, and shall, on arrival, be presented for inspection to the Superintendent of the Slaughter-House, hereinafter referred to as 'the Superintendent'.

3. The Superintendent may either approve of animals presented as fit for slaughter or may reject them as unfit.

4. Approved animals shall be at once admitted to the waiting yard of the slaughter-house premises, and the presenters of rejected animals shall remove the same from the neighbourhood of the said premises.

5. All animals when approved shall be kept in the waiting yard until the owners or persons in charge receive permission to bring them into the slaughter-yard. No animal may be slaughtered until the prescribed fees have been paid.

6. (1) Receptacles shall be provided upon the slaughtering platform for the receipt of the contents of stomachs and bowels of slaughtered animals, and when slaughtered animals are disembowelled, which shall be as soon as possible after slaughter, the butchers shall cause such contents to be emptied into the receptacles so provided.

(2) Filled receptacles shall be removed and replaced by fresh empty ones as disembowelling proceeds, this being done by establishment provided for the purpose, and no disembowelling shall occur without there being receptacles ready for the receipt of the contents of stomachs and bowels.

7. No person shall rub, or cause to be rubbed, the inner sides of skins upon the ground within any portion of the slaughter-yard, or in the neighbourhood of the slaughter-house premises.

8. No person shall knowingly bring into any part of the slaughter-house premises any diseased or unsound cattle or other animals or any dying animals, and no person shall bring any carcass inside the slaughter-house premises. Provided that animals which may have met with an accident in no way affecting their fitness for human food, may, with the approval of the Superintendent, be brought and slaughtered within the slaughter-house premises.

9. No animal which is with young shall be permitted to be slaughtered.

10. All carcasses shall be inspected by the Superintendent and no carcass shall be removed from the slaughter-house premises until it has been passed as fit for human consumption and, if necessary, branded (or stamped) so as to define its quality. The Superintendent shall cause all carcasses or meat, which in his opinion may be unfit for human consumption, to be buried or destroyed.

11. No person shall remove any carcass or portion of a carcass from the slaughter-house after the hour fixed for closing the slaughter-house and any carcass or portion of a carcass remaining within the slaughter-house premises after such hour shall be disposed of as the Superintendent may direct. Skins, heads, horns, and feet of animals must be removed before the hour appointed for closing the slaughter-house.

12. No person shall remove, or cause to be removed, any carcass or meat except in such a way that it is screened from public view.

13. No person shall blow or stuff any meat within the slaughter-house premises, and the Superintendent may cause to be buried or destroyed any meat found to be blown or stuffed.

14. All carcasses or meat ordered to be destroyed in accordance with the provisions of bye-laws 10 and 13 shall be so dealt with that as far as possible it may be rendered impossible to use such carcass or meat for human food.

15. No person shall be permitted to create any disturbance in the slaughter-house premises. Any persons transgressing this bye-law may be removed summarily under the direction of the Superintendent.

16. No person affected with leprosy, sores, or any other skin disease, or any contagious or infectious disease, shall enter the slaughter-house premises.

17. Any person committing a breach of any of the above bye-laws shall, on conviction by a Magistrate, be liable to a fine which may amount to fifty rupees.

18. Every person using the slaughter-house shall pay fees at the following rates for each animal slaughtered :—

Oxen, cows, buffaloes, calves	As. 8 per head.
Sheep, goats, lambs, and kids	" 2 "

After the 29th March all notifications and other matter intended for publication in those Parts should be addressed to the Officiating Publisher at Simla.

Attention is invited to the following Circular Memorandum of the Government of India, Home Department, of August 1901 :—

"It has been brought to the notice of this Department that matter for the Gazette of India is sometimes sent to the Press late on Friday evenings for publication in the next day's Gazette, and that this involves considerable inconvenience to the Press and expense to Government. In the Circular Memorandum of this Department, No. 777—79, dated 9th February 1870, the Government of India directed that all notifications or other matter intended for insertion in the Gazette of India should be delivered at the Press not later than 2 P.M. on Friday, and that any papers sent thereafter must be certified to be extremely urgent in order to ensure their appearance in the next day's Gazette. The undersigned is directed to request that these orders may be more strictly observed in future, and that Departments will refrain from sending to the Press as extremely urgent any papers which can without harm or inconvenience be held over for the next Gazette."

J. P. HEWETT,

Secretary to the Government of India.

Class 15. Nos. 786-790. The Calico Printers' Association Limited, St. James's Buildings, Oxford Street, Manchester, England. August 11.

NOTICES.THE PATENT OFFICE, 1, COUNCIL HOUSE STREET, CALCUTTA.*Public room, open 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.; Saturdays, 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

1. All communications relating to applications for patents and for registration of designs under the Indian Patents and Designs Act (II of 1911), or in continuation of applications under the Inventions and Designs Act (V of 1888) should be addressed to the Controller of Patents and Designs, 1, Council House Street, Calcutta. Documents sent by post should be carefully packed.

2. Directions for the guidance of inventors and others are given in the Indian Patents and Designs Act, 1911 (price, 10 annas), and in the Indian Patents and Designs Rules, 1912 (price, 2 annas). These should be consulted before an application is made to the Controller.

3. Advice. The Patent Office cannot undertake (1) to give opinions on the interpretation of Patent Law, or on the advisability of protecting inventions and designs nor their infringement; (2) to make searches in respect of information available in the public room; (3) to recommend any particular agent; or (4) to assist in the disposal of inventions. Applicants are warned that the Indian Patents and Designs Act, 1911, is in force in British India only, and patents granted under it do not extend to the United Kingdom or any of the British possessions. The International Convention for the Protection of Industrial Property does not include India. Applications for patents in countries other than India should be made to the patent offices in the countries concerned.

4. Fees are payable in cash and must be received in the Patent Office within the time allowed by the Acts. When cheques are offered in payment of fees, it must be clearly understood that the office cannot hold itself responsible for any delay that may occur in the collection of cash on the cheques; any cheque not payable in Calcutta is subject to commission. In cases where it is not possible to have the fees handed in at the Patent Office, it is preferable to send them by money-order or postal order payable at Calcutta to the Controller of Patents and Designs, and to advise him that they have been so sent. Stamps will not be received in payment of fees.

5. Trade and property marks and names are not registered and medicines are not patented under the Indian Patents and Designs Act. There is no provision of Law in British India for their registration.

6. Printed Specifications of applications, which have been accepted, are published within about three weeks after acceptance has been notified in the Gazette of India. These specifications can be purchased at the Patent Office at a uniform price of 8 annas per copy; and may be seen free of charge, together with other publications of the Patent Office, at the following places:—

OFFICIAL HISTORY OF THE CORONATION DURBAR AND OF THE VISIT OF THEIR IMPERIAL MAJESTIES THE KING-
EMPEROR AND QUEEN-EMPRESS TO INDIA, 1911-12.

To meet the repeated demands of the public, the Government of India have decided to publish a complete and authoritative account of the proceedings connected with the visit of Their Imperial Majesties to India and with the Coronation Durbar of December 1911.

This book will be compiled from the official records, and will contain lists of all persons taking part in the celebrations and ceremonies. There will also be numerous illustrations, portraits, maps, plans, etc.

It will be published in two editions, a popular one in a cloth binding at a cost not exceeding Rs. 7-8, and a very limited edition de luxe, which will contain a list of the subscribers, at a cost of about Rs. 250.

A translation of the popular edition will be made in Urdu and possibly in other languages also if the demand is sufficient.

It is expected that the work will be ready for publication in about six months' time, names are still being registered for the various editions, and application should be made to the Superintendent, Official History of the Durbar, Foreign Department, Simla.

SULPHATE OF QUININE, SULPHATE OF CINCHONIDINE AND CINCHONA FEBRIFUGE.

No. 6658-Revenue.—With reference to the Chief Commissioner's notification No. 3045, dated 1st July 1913, it is hereby notified that under section 155 (1) (d) of the Punjab Land Revenue Act, 1887, the following rule prescribing the fees payable for searches and for copies of records supplied by the Copying Department of the Deputy Commissioner's Office has been made by the Chief Commissioner.

RULE.

The fees payable for searches and copies supplied by the Copying Department of the Deputy Commissioner's Office shall be as follows :—

(A) In the case of copies supplied to applicants who obtain their copies in person.

(a) Ordinary fees—

	English.	Vernacular.
	As.	As.
First 200 words or under	8	4
Every additional 100 words or fraction thereof	4	2

These rates include the cost of paper, which will be supplied by Government.

(b) Special fees—

For field maps, boundary maps and tubular work, a special fee will be fixed by the officer in charge, but the fee should always be a multiple of two annas.

(c) Urgent fees—

Applicants for "urgent" copies to take precedence of other copying work shall pay a uniform extra charge of one rupee.

(d) Search fees—

If the officer in charge of the copying agency considers that, owing to the defective information supplied by the applicant, the search for the document has involved an unreasonable amount of trouble on the record-room staff, he may on the application of the record-room staff impose a search fee of eight annas.

(B) In the case of copies supplied through the value-payable post.

(a) Ordinary, special, urgent and search fees as above prescribed.

(b) Agency fees.

Two annas per application.

(c) Court fees and stamp fees.—

The amount actually spent on applicant's behalf on the application and on the copy supplied.

(d) Postal charges—

The amount actually spent on applicant's behalf on postal charges and value-payable post commission.

No. 6668-Home.—Under the provisions of section 12 of the Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, 1887 (IX of 1887), the Chief Commissioner is pleased to appoint Sheikh Abdul Aziz as Registrar of the Small Cause Court at Delhi, and to confer upon him, within the local limits of the Delhi Municipality, with effect from the date on which he assumed charge of his duties, the powers of a Judge of a Court of Small Causes for the trial of suits of which the value does not exceed Rs. 20.

No. 6675-Education.—In continuation of notification No. 4859, dated the 23rd of June 1913, it is hereby notified that the Reverend C. R. N. Blakiston, of the Cambridge Mission, Delhi, officiated as Chaplain of Delhi, during the absence on leave of the Reverend T. H. Dixon.

THE HON'BLE THE RESIDENT IN MYSORE.

NOTIFICATION.

Bangalore, the 26th August 1913.

No. 45. The following draft of certain rules which it is proposed to make in exercise of the powers conferred by Section 24 of the Provident Insurance Societies Act, 1912 (V of 1912), as applied to the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore, is published, as required by Section 24 (3) of the said Act, for the information of persons likely to be affected thereby, and notice is given that the draft will be taken into consideration by the Resident in Mysore on or after the 1st November 1913.

2. Any objections or suggestions which may be received from any persons with respect to these draft rules before the date fixed will be considered by the Resident.

Draft Rules.

1. This Act shall extend to any society receiving premium or contribution for insuring money to be paid on the happening of the following contingencies in addition to those referred to in Section 2 (8) :—

- (a) Namakaranam (naming of the child).
- (b) Upanayanam (the thread ceremony among the Hindus).
- (c) Sunnat among Muhammadans.
- (d) Vidyabhyasa (the school going ceremony).
- (e) Baptism (among Christians).
- (f) Pilgrimage (to sacred places as Mecca for Muhammadans, and Benares, Tirupati, Bhadrachalam, etc. for Hindus).
- (g) Attainment of puberty.
- (h) Simantam (the ceremony performed during the first pregnancy of a woman).
- (i) Confinement.
- (j) Widowhood.

In the case of women.

II. In addition to the rules required by clauses (a) to (c) of Section 5 of the Act, every society shall, within three months of the making and publication of these rules, or if not registered before their publication, before registration under the Act, make rules in respect of the matters specified hereunder :—

- (a) The appointment, qualifications and powers of the Directors, or the manager or secretary and of other officers of the society and the conditions under which they may be removed.
- (b) The rates of premiums and contributions and the period for which and at which they are payable.
- (c) The penalty for delay in paying premiums and contributions.
- (d) The maximum amount payable to a subscriber or policy-holder.
- (e) The amount to which a policy-holder or his representative becomes entitled on the maturity of a policy.
- (f) The circumstances in which a bonus shall be payable to policy-holders.
- (g) The nature of the evidence required to prove birth, marriage, death or other event on the occurrence of which the insured amount is payable.
- (h) The circumstances in which policies may be forfeited and renewed and premium and contributions already paid may be refunded.
- (i) The maximum number of policies other than life assurance policies which a single person may hold.
- (j) The mode of investment of the funds of the society.
- (k) The allowances payable to agents or canvassers.
- (l) The procedure to be adopted for the amendment of the rules.
- (m) The appointment and remuneration of auditors.
- (n) When the business of provident insurance is combined with other business, the proportion of the income set apart for such business and for insurance.

Such rules shall be deemed to be an amendment of the registered rules of the society, and a copy of them shall be sent under Section 8 (1) to the Registrar within four months of the making and publication of these rules.

III. The register of members prescribed by Section 10 of the Act shall be maintained in Form A appended to these rules.

IV. The name of a society which is required by Section 12 of the Act to be displayed shall be displayed in English and in Tamil.

V. The revenue account and balance sheet referred to in Section 13 of the Act shall be prepared in Forms B and C appended to these rules, respectively, and the certificate of verification shall be signed by the chairman and two directors of the society, the auditor, the secretary or manager, and if a society has a managing director, by the managing director.

VI. The record of insurances effected on lives other than lives of the persons insuring referred to in Section 15 of the Act shall be maintained in Form D appended to these rules. The copy delivered to the Registrar shall be signed by the chairman and two directors of the society, the secretary or manager, and if the society has a managing director, by the managing director.

VII. The following fees shall be payable to the Registrar in cash for matters transacted under the Act :—

	Rs.
(1) Registration of a society (Section 6)	40

NOTE.—A society which has already been registered under the Indian Companies Act on payment of the prescribed fee is exempt from payment of any fee for re-registration under this Act.

NOTICE.

The 25th March 1913.

On and after the 5th April till further notice, Parts I, IV, V and VI of the Gazette of India and the Weather and Crop Report will be published at Simla. After the 29th March all notifications and other matter intended for publication in those Parts should be addressed to the Officiating Publisher at Simla.

Attention is invited to the following Circular Memorandum of the Government of India, Home Department, of August 1901 :—

"It has been brought to the notice of this Department that matter for the Gazette of India is sometimes sent to the Press late on Friday evenings for publication in the next day's Gazette, and that this involves considerable inconvenience to the Press and expense to Government. In the Circular Memorandum of this Department, No. 777—79, dated 9th February 1870, the Government of India directed that all notifications or other matter intended for insertion in the Gazette of India should be delivered at the Press not later than 2 P.M. on Friday, and that any papers sent thereafter must be certified to be extremely urgent in order to ensure their appearance in the next day's Gazette. The undersigned is directed to request that these orders may be more strictly observed in future, and that Departments will refrain from sending to the Press as extremely urgent any papers which can without harm or inconvenience be held over for the next Gazette."

J. P. HEWETT,

Secretary to the Government of India.

NOTICES.THE PATENT OFFICE, 1, COUNCIL HOUSE STREET, CALCUTTA.

Public room, open 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.; Saturdays, 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

1. All communications relating to applications for patents and for registration of designs under the Indian Patents and Designs Act (II of 1911), or in continuation of applications under the Inventions and Designs Act (V of 1888) should be addressed to the Controller of Patents and Designs, 1, Council House Street, Calcutta. Documents sent by post should be carefully packed.

2. Directions for the guidance of inventors and others are given in the Indian Patents and Designs Act, 1911 (price, 10 annas), and in the Indian Patents and Designs Rules, 1912 (price, 2 annas). These should be consulted before an application is made to the Controller.

3. Advice. The Patent Office cannot undertake (1) to give opinions on the interpretation of Patent Law, or on the advisability of protecting inventions and designs nor their infringement; (2) to make searches in respect of information available in the public room; (3) to recommend any particular agent; or (4) to assist in the disposal of inventions. Applicants are warned that the Indian Patents and Designs Act, 1911, is in force in British India only, and patents granted under it do not extend to the United Kingdom or any of the British possessions. The International Convention for the Protection of Industrial Property does not include India. Applications for patents in countries other than India should be made to the patent offices in the countries concerned.

4. Fees are payable in cash and must be received in the Patent Office within the time allowed by the Acts. When cheques are offered in payment of fees, it must be clearly understood that the office cannot hold itself responsible for any delay that may occur in the collection of cash on the cheques; any cheque not payable in Calcutta is subject to commission. In cases where it is not possible to have the fees handed in at the Patent Office, it is preferable to send them by money-order or postal order payable at Calcutta to the Controller of Patents and Designs, and to advise him that they have been so sent. Stamps will not be received in payment of fees.

5. Trade and property marks and names are not registered and medicines are not patented under the Indian Patents and Designs Act. There is no provision of Law in British India for their registration.

6. Printed Specifications of applications, which have been accepted, are published within about three weeks after acceptance has been notified in the Gazette of India. These specifications can be purchased at the Patent Office at a uniform price of 8 annas per copy; and may be seen free of charge, together with other publications of the Patent Office, at the following places:—

THE HON'BLE THE CHIEF COMMISSIONER OF BRITISH BALUCHISTAN.

NOTIFICATION.

Quetta, the 1st September 1913.

No. —The following draft of a Notification, which it is proposed to issue under the Co-operative Credit Societies Act, 1912 (II of 1912), is published as required by section 43, sub-section (4), of the said Act, for the information of persons likely to be affected thereby and notice is given that the draft will be taken into consideration by the Chief Commissioner on or after the 15th October 1913.

Any objections or suggestions which may be sent to the Secretary by any person with respect to the draft before the date aforesaid will be considered by the Chief Commissioner.

1. (1) These rules may be called the Baluchistan Co-operative Societies Rules, 1913.

- (2) In these rules—

- (a) the expression "the Act" means the Co-operative Societies Act, 1912 (II of 1912);
- (b) terms defined in the Act shall bear the meanings respectively assigned to them therein.

2. (1) Every application for the registration of a society under section 8, sub-section (1), of the Act shall be in the form of Schedule A.

- (2) Two copies of the by-laws proposed for the society which should accompany the application for registration under section 8, sub-section (3), of the Act, shall be signed by not less than ten of the applicants.

- (3) In cases where one of the members of the proposed society is a registered society, a member of the Managing Committee of that society shall sign the application for registration on its behalf, and a copy of the resolution of the Committee authorising him to do so shall be appended.

3. If the Registrar refuses to register the society and its by-laws under section 9 of the Act, he shall communicate to the applicants his reason for so doing.

4. Where the Registrar refuses to register a society, an appeal shall lie to the Chief Commissioner who may direct the Registrar to register the society.

5. (1) The matters in respect of which every society shall make by-laws are the following, namely :—

- (a) the name and address of the society ;
- (b) the objects of the society, the purposes to which its funds are applicable, the terms of admission of members and their rights and liabilities, the consequences of default in payment of any sum due by a member, and in the case of Credit Societies the conditions on which loans may be granted ;
- (c) the mode of holding meetings, the right of voting, and, subject to the provisions of rules 6 and 7, the manner of making, altering and abrogating by-laws ;
- (d) the mode of appointment and removal of a committee and of other officers, if any, and the duties and powers of the committee and such officers ;
- (e) the manner in which capital may be raised ;
- (f) the mode of custody and of investment of the funds and, subject to rules 9 and 11, the mode of keeping the accounts.

(2) Every society may make by-laws in respect of any other matters incidental to the management of its business.

6. When a society has been registered, the by-laws submitted under rule 2, sub-rule (2), shall, subject to any modifications approved by the Registrar, become the by-laws of the society on their being adopted at a general meeting by a majority of not less than two-thirds of the members.

7. By-laws may be made, altered or abrogated by a resolution passed at a general meeting of the society :

Provided that—

- (1) due notice of any proposal to make, alter or abrogate is given in accordance with the by-laws ;
- (2) the resolution is passed by not less than two-thirds of the members present at the general meeting ; and
- (3) the making, alteration or abrogation is approved and registered by the Registrar.

8. Where the Registrar refuses approval to the making, alteration or abrogation of any by-law, an appeal shall lie to the Chief Commissioner, who may direct the Registrar to withdraw his refusal.

9. (1) Every Credit Society shall keep the following accounts and books, namely :—

- (a) Register of members, including persons nominated under rule 12.
- (b) Register of Shares and Debentures (where capital is raised by shares or debentures).
- (c) Share transfer register (where capital is raised by shares or debentures).
- (d) Cash account.
- (e) Member's loan accounts.
- (f) Deposit account.
- (g) Interest account.
- (h) Expenses account.
- (i) Bank account.
- (j) Minute book, recording the proceedings of general meetings.
- (k) Minute book, recording the proceedings of meetings of the committee.
- (l) Such other accounts and books as may be prescribed by the Registrar.

(2) Societies other than credit societies shall keep accounts and books (a), (d), (i) and (k) mentioned in sub-rule (1) and such other accounts and books as may be approved or required by the Registrar.

10. For the purposes of section 26 of the Act, copies of entries in the books of any society may be certified by any officer of the society.

11. On or before April 20th of each year the committee shall publish an annual balance-sheet, showing (a) the profit and loss, and (b) the receipts and expenditure, of the previous financial year, and (c) the assets and liabilities as they stood on March 31st. This balance-sheet shall be open to the inspection of any member during office hours at the office of the society, and a copy thereof shall be submitted to the Registrar before April 30th.

12. (1) Every member of a society may nominate a person to whom under section 22 of the Act his share or interest shall be transferred or the sum specified in that section shall be paid.

(2) The name and address of every person so nominated shall be entered in the register kept under rule 9, sub-rule (1), clause (a).

13. The Registrar shall keep a register of the names and addresses of all societies.
14. The appointment of a liquidator shall be notified by the Registrar in the Gazette of India, Part II.
15. Where a liquidator has been appointed under section 42, sub-section (1), of the Act the following procedure shall be adopted :—
- The liquidator shall at once publish by such means as he may think proper a notice requiring all claims against the dissolved society to be submitted to him within three months of publication of the notice. All liabilities recorded in the account books of a society shall be deemed ipso facto to have been duly notified.
 - The liquidator shall submit a three-monthly progress report to the Registrar in such form as the Registrar may require.
 - All funds in charge of the liquidator shall be deposited in the Post Office Savings Bank, and shall stand in his name.
 - No appeal shall lie to any Civil Court from any order of the liquidator.
16. At the conclusion of the liquidation a general meeting of the dissolved society shall be called at which the liquidator shall summarise the results of his proceedings, shall point out the causes of the failure of the society and shall take a vote as to the disposal of any cash balance that may remain with him.
